TO: Secretary of State

NO: 445, March 18, 5 p.m.

SENT DEPARTMENT 445; REPEATED PARIS 116, LONDON 114,
HAGUE 45, POUCHED LUXEMBOURG

REMYTEL 444.

[REDACTED] Prince Regent would ask Eyskens to form new government but there would be difficulties especially on the score of participation
[REDACTED]

If Eyskens succeeds procedure will require vote of confidence in Chamber after which joint session of both chambers would be held. He said he would not be surprised if crisis might last two weeks.

There is evident growing uneasiness over divisive longer term effects of party campaigns which have developed in virulence. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
prelude to more serious strike action if Leopold turns viewed as provocative and disturbing.
